

Proportion of 100 Simulations That Converged vs Method

Rows are degree of saturation and trend in relative abundance columns are correlation of target species' abundance with saturation events. Dashed black line indicates proportion of converged simulations with 85% bait removal and dotted red line indicates proportion of converged simulations with 100% bait removal.

Simulated Abundance

