

Bias in Relative Abundance Indices vs Method

Rows are trends in relative abundance of target species and the average degree of hook saturation, Columns describe both the arrival time distributions and the abilities to locate baited hooks after 50% of baits removed

