

MSE in Relative Abundance Indices Across Years 2–6 vs Method

Rows are trends in relative abundance of target species and the average degree of hook saturation, X-axis values are correlation of target species' abundance with saturation events

