Bias in Relative Abundance Indices Across Years 2–6 vs Method

Rows are trends in relative abundance of target species and the average degree of hook saturation,
X–axis values are correlation of target species' abundance with saturation events